CAMP ONE - ROOMS 16, 17 & 18

PIC-COLLAGE

While the Year 5's were at camp, the Year 4's from Room 17 studied Dr Seuss' 'The Lorax' and became creative.

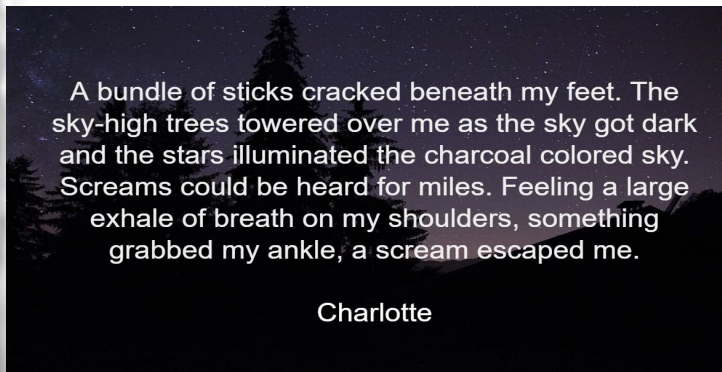

Thanks to the best group of parents ever!

Panicking as the cargo net swayed beneath me, my breath caught in the back of my throat. Butterflies danced energetically in my tummy as the kids chatted softly on the platform behind me. The breeze tickled my face like someone was waving a feather over it..

Annabel Eyre

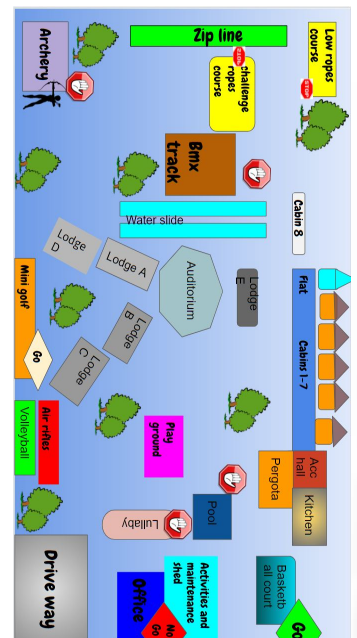

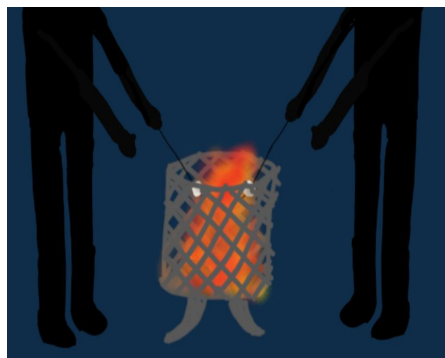

A bundle of sticks cracked beneath my feet. The sky-high trees towered over me as the sky got dark and the stars illuminated the charcoal colored sky. Screams could be heard for miles. Feeling a large exhale of breath on my shoulders, something grabbed my ankle, a scream escaped me.

Charlotte

Holding the rope with both hands above me, I reached for the next rope. I could only see black as the blindfold covered my eyes. My legs quivered as the rope shook.

Logan M

As I pulled back the arrow I could feel my fingers screaming, I watched the arrow head quiver as the leaves whooshed around. Smelling the fresh air and the taste of dust in my mouth. Fingers aching, I lined the arrow up hoping for a bullseye.
