HOOKED ON LEARNING
Term 1, Week 10
Rooms 11, 12 & 13

Welcome to our final newsletter for Term 1. Our Year 3 team have been enjoying 'hands on' science.

Room 11 learnt about our skeleton with 'Dem Bones'. Room 12 investigated their super sense of smell and Room 13 set off some explosive fireworks (safely!).

We have also enjoyed a variety of physical activities with Hockey and Basketball tasters, thanks to Youthtown.

A note from Mrs R..

We have access to a wide range of books at school that we are eager for our students to bring home regularly as buddy readers. It is important to note that children may not have read these books in class, and may require the support of an adult at home as a buddy reader. Reading the story at home should be an enjoyable and successful experience. Please remember to return these books with their Home Learning book to school each day. Many thanks for your ongoing support in your child's learning.

Esau the Paw

Esau the Paw is scruffy, fluffy and knotty. I hear him scratching. It sounds like scrrrrrrratch. He is so dirty! He has got a big belly, a knotty body and scruffy fur. He got a haircut. While Esaus' friends were playing, he was sulking inside, wishing his fur would grow back soon. After some time, his friends brought him outside. They went for a run - what such fun! Seeing all the amazing sights from tree to tree, they raced. To Esau's surprise, he noticed his friends were puffing and huffing. "Isn't this fun?" he giggled with glee. "More like tiring," his friends moaned. But Esau the Paw was climbing up high in the trees with his cool little coat to tease them. Now Esau was a happy, hyperactive cat. Well maybe... not always!

By Israel Steunebrink, Room 12

Room 13 have been learning about tigers. We found out many interesting facts about tigers and their different habitats. Keep safe and have a lovely break.
